

Security, Cookies, Ads and things . . .

Despite being labelled in Your browser as Not secure, Our website IS secure in that it is totally and absolutely purely informative; it DOES NOT involve online payments or other interactive or potentially insecure activities!

NOR, to the best of Our knowledge, does it link to any other insecure sites; however, Your USE of any links We do provide is necessarily somewhat at Your risk.

We DO NOT use 'cookies' on Our site, either.

We DO NOT have adverts on Our site, neither 'pop-up' or otherwise; any such ads that You see will be being offered by Your web-browser. Consult Your local computer expert or a handy teenager as to how to block them!
